November 3, 2015

Dan,

The AAU National Office would like to thank you for making the 501(c)3 non-profit FreeRecruitingWebinar.org resource available on our website for our membership. We at the AAU plan to utilize it in order to better educate our membership about the ever changing academic requirements of the NCAA and NAIA for prospective student-athletes, as well as the college recruiting process. In light of the new initial eligibility requirements of the NCAA to go into effect the fall of 2016 and beyond, it's even more imperative for athletes and parents to be in the know of what's required. We have found this to be one of the more thorough, complete and well-presented resources available.

We look forward to having you on hand to speak with parents and athletes at future AAU national events.

Keep up the good work!

Sincerely,

About AAU:

The AAU was founded in 1888 to establish standards and uniformity in amateur sports. During its early years, the AAU served as a leader in international sports representing the U.S. in the international sports federations. The AAU worked closely with the Olympic movement to prepare athletes for the Olympic Games. After the Amateur Sports Act of 1978, the AAU has focused its efforts into providing sports programs for all participants of all ages beginning at the grass roots level. The philosophy of "Sports for All, Forever," is shared by over 670,000 participants and over 100,000 volunteers.
